Situated to the west of Albufeira, a little inland from the coast, a luxury low density development. With 'A-rated" luxury apartments, townhouses, and bespoke villas, all with private pools, easily maintained gardens and garages, the quality of design and build is evident throughout. Internally, all principal rooms have a generous layout and are flooded with natural light. The development benefits from an elevated position with panoramic countryside and distant sea views.
Eco-sensitive and boasting a range of complementary facilities and services.
Currently, under construction, these smart home ready properties are now released, with plans and site visits now available via Cerro Novo.
