Situated around a ten-minute walk to Albufeira's thriving Old Town,beach and Marina, this lovely traditional bungalow offers great potential as a lock and go, permanent home, or even an income generator. A generous living, dining, and kitchen space occupies the ground floor, with front door access from a BBQ patio and a lawned sun terrace with some marina views and a private gate to the curb and quiet estate road. Leading from the living space are a few steps to a small landing where one will find two good bedrooms, sharing a family bathroom. A further guest bedroom (+1) is adjacent, with its own ensuite shower room. This is a practical, low-maintenance property in an excellent location. With air conditioning and solar panels for warm water and central heating.
