Mature gardens with indigenous trees, seating areas, covered dining terrace and convenient
